

Information for practical nursing program graduates about the the new regulatory exam in B.C.

A new regulatory exam for B.C.

BCCNM and the College of Nurses of Ontario have partnered with the National Council of State Boards of Nursing to develop a new entry-to-practice exam for practical nursing applicants, the REx-PN. The exam uses a computer-adaptive testing \(CAT\) format. With each question you answer, the computer will re-estimate your ability to provide safe nursing care.

How to apply

1. Create a BCCNM account.
2. Apply for practising LPN registration.

We'll give you instructions to register and pay for the exam.

When to apply

Apply six weeks before you finish your program.

Need a testing accommodation? Apply eight weeks before program completion.

Exam fee

$350+GST per attempt and is paid directly to Pearson Vue.

The fee is non-refundable and is in addition to BCCNM application and registration fees.

Exam details

- You'll answer between 90-150 questions. The exam will continue until the computer determines if you meet the passing standard.
- The number of questions asked does not indicate whether you pass or fail.
- You will not be able to skip or return to questions.
- An on-screen calculator will be provided.
- You'll need to memorize normal lab values. Check the Test Plan \(p. 36\) for details.
- You will receive a pass/fail result.

Visit the CAT page on our website for more information.

Preparing for the exam

Resources are available that you can use to prepare for the REx-PN. A few are listed below; a full list of resources is available in the exam section of our website.

Test Plan: Provides an overview of the information that will be tested, the type of questions asked, and some sample questions.

REx-PN Candidate Tutorial: Practice items to familiarize yourself with the different types of questions that will be asked on the exam.

REx-PN practice exam: Available for $150 USD, you will receive two practice exams of 80 questions for one-time use within 45 days of purchase.
